

Reading -Term 5 Week 1 - The Environment

Book: Dear Greenpeace

Reading task – To be able to infer from a text.

Description - You are going to think about the story 'Dear Greenpeace'.

With a text, we can make inferences. This is when we use clues from the text to help us work out how someone is feeling. Today, we're going to think about how Emily feels about her whale.

Task 1: How do you think Emily feels about her whale? What makes you think that?

Task 2: How do you think Emily feels when she receives the reply below?

Year 1: Please share your answers with someone at home by talking through the questions.

Year 2: Please record your answers by writing them down.

I think Emily feels... because in Greenpeace's letter it says...
